Holy Redeemer Church, 206 New York Ave NW,
Washington, DC 20001

Pax Christi Metro DC-Baltimore is a region of Pax Christi USA, the national Catholic peace movement. Rooted in the Gospel and Catholic Social Teaching, we witness to Jesus' message and example of nonviolence, rejecting war and affirming the sacredness of human life and the interdependence of all creation.

Space is limited to 200 people. Register at www.PaxChristiMetroDC.org soon, but no later than Nov. 6.*

(See reverse for details on Metro, parking, and more.)

Gerry Lee has served in overseas and urban US ministry for more than 30 years. From 1984 to 1994, he, his wife, and their three daughters were a mission family in Venezuela with Maryknoll Lay Missioners (MLM). From 1994 to 2006, he served on the MLM staff. After 10 years as part of the food justice movement in the U.S., practicing urban farming with young adults and community leaders in inner city Philadelphia, he was chosen to direct the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns. Gerry took part in the historic 2016 Rome gathering that produced "An Appeal to the Catholic Church to Recommit to the Centrality of Gospel Nonviolence."

Rose Marie Berger is a Catholic poet and peace activist who writes about empire, art, social justice, and activism. She has authored three books, edited one, and contributed to many others. With Sojourners over three decades, she has worked as a peace organizer, internship program director, liturgist, community pastor, poetry editor, and, currently, as an associate editor of Sojourners magazine. She has traveled widely for her work. Like Gerry, she took part in the 2016 Rome gathering, and is active with Pax Christi International and the Catholic Nonviolence Initiative.
